

BBC,
the world tonight,
top story was:

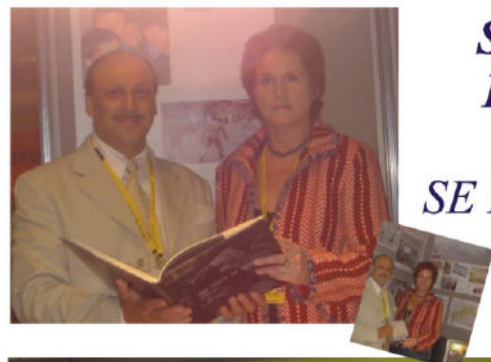

Liberal Democrats Friends of Kashmir

Exhibition

by Qassim Afzal

John Hemming MP from Yardley, winning the parliamentary seat in 2005, having already become a City Councillor representing South Yardley and Leader of Birmingham City Council's Liberal Democrat Group.

BBC radio presenter Paul Moss takes a detailed interview for BBC World service

Sharon
Bowles
MEP
SE Region 2005

Brighton Conference 2006

Scholars, analyst, and foreign policy units in the west recognise that the dispute over Kashmir is a central source of tension between Pakistan and India. While activists and many government representatives identify that United Nations resolutions have not been implemented, thus subsequent direction, such as the Simla Agreement and the Lahore Declaration have not yet led to a solution.

Ref: Qassim Afzal research International Diaspora Perspectives on Foreign Polices of Kashmir Political Future under the UN resolutions

