

Lord Tom McNally visits the LDFK Exhibition

October 2004 Lord McNally was elected to be leader of the Liberal Democrats in the House of Lords, a member of the Privy Council in February 2005.

A Lib Dem as "the voice of conscience and reform on issues such as civil liberties, human rights, changes in the legal system and access to justice". In 1972, he provided research back-up for the Rt. Hon James Callaghan as Shadow Foreign Secretary and joined Mr. Callaghan as his political adviser at the Foreign Office after the latter's appointment as Foreign Secretary after the February 1974 General Election.

In 1976, on becoming Prime Minister, Mr. Callaghan appointed Tom McNally Head of the Political Office in 10 Downing Street. During his time with Mr. Callaghan, Tom accompanied him to meetings with the Presidents Ford and Carter, Dr. Kissinger, Mr. Breznev and Mr. Gromyko, the Heads of Government of all the European Community countries, and a wide range of Government and political leaders in Africa and the Middle East.

Lord McNally Takes great Interest in the very well balanced exhibition, led by Qassim Afzal, with senior members of the parliamentary team.

LibDems
Federal Conferences
in Brighton
2006

Constituency representatives from across the country visit the liberal democrats friends of Kashmir fact finding exhibition to the Line of Control.

Northwest Cllr Kenny Dobson and Cllr David Simpson from Hartley Wintney amongst 5000 Party delegates visiting, many reflect positively on the current dialogue which is taking place between Pakistan and India in relation to the long standing disputed region dating back to 1947 partition.