Many senior party members took a keen interest in the 2003 and 2005 successfully LibDems parliamentary delegations to Pakistan and Kashmir.

Qassim Afzal has kept the party informed of the developments that are currently taking place between India and Pakistan over the disputed region.

Delegates are concerned that both countries are now nuclear powers.

Party members view 3 minutes documentary showing a synopses related to frequents concerns

Lorely Burt MP for Solihull, spokesperson on Northern Ireland and served on the Treasury Select Committee.

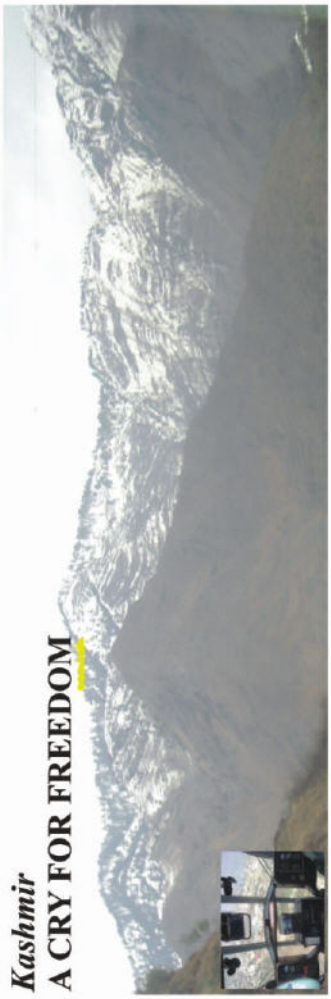
After the election of Sir Menzies Campbell to the party leadership in March 2006, Lorely was appointed spokesperson on Small Business and on Women & Equality.

Banner the conference



UN Observers... on this side of the line only