

Kashmir Dispute

2003, Qassim meets Prime Minister of Azad Kashmir Iskander Hyate and President Anwar Sardar, later with X PM C.S Mahmood.

The delegation of Parliamentarians, Patcy Calton MP, Dr Jenny Tonge MP, led by Qassim Afzal, and aided by Ben Jephcott aimed to explore what help we and the international community can work towards in creating a process of peace and democracy in the province and the prospects for confidence building measures on both sides prior to wider negotiations

2006, in Manchester speeches are made on the ongoing dispute, alongside guest speaker Ch . S Mahmood

In 2004, Qassim Afzal speaks at a fringe meeting in Parliament, alongside several Labour parliamentarians.

UK is home to approx.. 700,000 British Kashmiris.

