

Multi Media Network TV Productions

Media1998

Qassim Afzal, 1998, covered the opening of the historic movie Jinnah, talking to Actor Christopher Lee, James Fox and actress Shireen Shah playing the daughter of Jinnah, Fatima, former prime minister Benazir Bhutto attended, MMN TV, reported on both openings SOAS London amongst VIPs, and Manchester for public film premiere.

Christopher Lee's portrayal of Jinnah is mesmerising and never less than convincing, Lee not only resembles Jinnah but his performance brings the world leader to life. "For me as an actor, it's certainly the most important part I have ever played and as far as I am any judge, it is the best performance I have given on screen in 57 years. I am very proud of this movie and it should be seen." Christopher Lee. The supporting cast is equally outstanding with James Fox as Lord Mountbatten, Shashi Kapoor as the Guide, Shireen Shah as Fatima Jinnah, Sam Dastor as Gandhi, Maria Aitken as Lady Mountbatten, Robert Ashby as Nehru and Richard Lintern as the young Jinnah.

World Press

